questions?

We would like to invite you to join us for National Apprenticeship Week 2022 7th to 11th February

Join us for a jam-packed week of webinars providing information on a variety of apprenticeship qualifications, to help support individuals who are looking for training opportunities to help further their career, or for managers who want to upskill their staff. We'll be tackling those misconceptions about apprenticeships, looking at the benefits and impacts they have on the workforce, and how managers can build their future teams by creating talent pipelines.

With over 3000 different apprenticeships on offer from entry level to degree it would be impossible to cover them all, so we have picked a selection which we think would support the Health and Care sector, however if you need further information on any apprenticeship that isn't covered during the week please contact us, and we will put you in touch with your organisation's apprenticeship lead or a training provider.

This event guide will provide you will all the information you need to join us for the week, including dates and times of the different webinars been held and where to get the links to join us.
